Who benefits from savings plans?

Employees, who:

- opted out of dental insurance coverage due to cost
- have (or will) exhaust their dental insurance plan's annual coverage limit
- need dental treatments that are not covered by insurance (braces, whitening, dental implants and veneers, etc.)
- are part time workers or seasonal employees who aren't eligible for dental insurance
- need to save on dental care costs now - can't wait for open enrollment

Employers, who:

- need to eliminate or reduce contribution to dental benefits
- are interested in supplementing current employee benefits
- want to offer affordable savings solutions along with other voluntary benefit programs
- need flexible, hassle-free solutions

¹The ["Usual Fee"] is determined by DentalPlans.com, Inc., using benchmark data from FAIR Health, Inc. FAIR Health data is used under license. Fees may reflect combined fees from several different procedures into one procedure and may not be directly comparable to a specific benchmark in FAIR Health Data. Actual fees charged by your provider may vary for a variety of reasons. ²Discounted fees are listed for visits to a participating general dentist - this fee is according to your fee schedule. Any procedure not listed on the complete fee schedule (provided in your members area once you join) will be discounted 20% off the provider's normal fee. Consult with your provider prior to beginning any treatment. Savings plans are not insurance and the savings will vary by provider, plan and zip code. Please consult with the respective plan detail page for additional plan terms. Special promotions including, but not limited to, additional months free are not available to California residents or on Fully Insured Plans.
